About This Game

"The Construct" is a classical top-down view adventure indie game. The gameplay mixes retro-like gameplay mechanics with modern features and a spectacular atmosphere and mysterious storyline. The game features an approximetly 2-3 hours long main story line with a constant variety in level design and cinematic elements, several bonus maps to unlock, numerous steam achievements, trading cards, emoticons, badges and profile backgrounds to collect, and after completing the story for the first time, the real hardcore skillgamers can choose to complete it for a second time on hard mode, that offers numerous changes in level design and a highly increased difficulity. With all of the above claculated it takes around 5-6 hours to 100% complete the game.

The game can be played using both a controller or mouse and keyboard. It features full controller support, but first you must enable your controller at the options tab in the main menu of the game.

Fun Game But Needs LOTS OF DEVELOPMENT!. This is great until you realize there will be no military funerals performed on the runway.. This is a really addicting game, I really look forward to this game going out of early access. I hope when it does it'll go viral, it's just awesome! I can't stop checking when is the next update, i'm just not patient. I recommend this game, in other words, Money well spent.. Almost as if the Gradius creators had made a tribute to their own game and decided to make it better in some ways, as the power up collection system adds a whole new dimension to the gameplay. Perfect music on top of Perfect everything, now with selectable difficulty so anyone can enjoy.. A Really good game and the price isn't bad either.

Near the beginning of the game, I encountered a ship that had a description that went something like "Extremely tough. Do not fight alone".

I MAY have took a shot at it... it MAY have led to my almost immediate death
But one thing is certain:

10\/10 would do something stupid again.. Easily the worst Civilization. Should've been a Civ 5 expansion, but instead was it's own game. 1\/10. Beautiful in every way, shape and form. If the fact my profile picture is a character from the series, and my name is based off the word "corona" doesn't convince you to buy this series of VN's, I don't know what will. Amazing artwork, cute characters, heartwarming and heartbreaking moments, pretty funny at times, and every once in a while... Lewd ;)

I recommend reading the other 2 volumes before this, otherwise you will be SO confused. But do I also recommend this one? Hell yes.. https://youtu.be/rB5Ae2cd-FY

Step into the creepy house with poor architectural design and search for answers, while also searching for questions. The limited puzzle design provides little guidance for the player while the monsters are only capable of blindly wandering or charging at the player.. A Short, Sweet and Adorable RPG with plenty of Warmth when it tells a story of ghosts bound in a Bed & Breakfast. This game aims to covey a positive message outlook when discussing the loss of loved ones and how not to look at death so very sadly.
I'd recommend this for anyone who wants to play casually with cute graphics, simple story and develop some warm and sweet feelings while playing.. + The music and environments are good and detailed
+ Movement is alright, no issues so far. Teleport is not necessary because the maps are not huge
+ I never asked for this
- Preview is short and you can't interact with anything.
- Please Dev, put into store page screenshots from VR experience, not pre-renders.
- I was secretly hoping to find Mr. Jensen's mirror finally repaired.. More awesome underground old-school RPG fun!. Very, very clever Zelda-like game. Tells a good story while affectionately poking fun at older games and using the pseudo-GB format to do some interesting things. Decent length so far, gameplay is pretty good (if "clunky" much like older games often would be), and the music's great. Unfortunately, it seems to have a fair number of glitches, mostly related to collision detection; just be careful and consider backing up your saves every once in a while. (The game autosaves very frequently, so don't worry about losing progress if you have to restart it.). Operation Anchorage was great. I mean, greater than listening to Preston nag you about settlements great.

Btw, I think the Winterized T-51B Power Armours broken. It stays at full condition, no matter how much I go through. I love it though. Its great.
